

CONTRACT LIFECYCLE MANAGEMENT

Many enterprises today struggle to gain visibility into their contract lifecycle management processes. Challenges include:

- Tracking contract breaches
- Avoiding duplication and divergence from negotiated terms
- Anticipating and preparing for renewals
- Inconsistent tools and practices

Tim Tech Consults’s Contract Lifecycle Management service takes a multi-pronged approach to address these pain points:

- A central repository provides visibility into contract hierarchies
- Automated customized reports and notifications enable a proactive approach to renewals and enhance negotiation leverage
- Standardized templates and process automation improve contract risk management, compliance and governance

IMPROVED COMPLIANCE

- Standardized templates and version control
- Automated audit and certification reporting
- Visibility into clauses and deviations from benchmarks

EFFICIENCY AND CONTROL

- Automated reports and notifications
- Digitization of contract activity
- Version control and tracking of contract changes

AUDITABILITY

- Visibility into contract activity
- Process and tools standardization
- Traceability of supplier performance
